On reaching Wetaskiwin, Sezarine got work and decided to remain, while Marchand was determined to push on to Morinville. On reaching Leduc on Friday evening he was arrested on a charge of theft on complaint of Sezarine, and brought to Edmonton. At the examination on Saturday the evidence of the complainant only was taken and the case was dismissed with costs of court against him. H. C. Taylor for defendant Marchand.

Their visit to the Northwest is not in their usual line of business; but having been held up by the great strike while at Great Falls, Montana, on their way to San Francisco, they decided to come north and put in the time intervening until their San Francisco date, on the Canada side. This gives an opportunity to witness a first-class performance that may not occur again at Edmonton for some time. HAY AND BARLEY.

There is an old saying; "Never give advice—if a man is wise he does not need it, and if he is not wise he won't take it." But as this itself is advice, and therefore on its own evidence should not be given, it need not be taken. The BULLETIN will not presume exactly to advise on the matters to which it proposes to allude, but it will lay the facts before the parties interested.

The first matter is in regard to hay. The hay crop this season is not as good as usual, and in some localities it is difficult to get enough, but in others there is an abundance for apparent needs and more too. Last year there was a large amount of hay put up and the demand during the winter was not good, and so it is quite possible that there will be a tendency amongst farmers to cut only sufficient for their own requirements or perhaps, to trust to buying a little, as they could have done so easily last winter. This is the more likely as harvest is certain to be early, and following close on the heels of haying will tend to shorten the time spent in haying and consequently the amount of hay put up. Where hay is hard to get, it would of course be poor policy for a farmer to spend time that could be more profitably employed in cutting hay on speculation. But it would be well to bear in mind that from all reports to date the hay crop in Southern Alberta will be nothing at all, and that, unless fall rains occur to start the grass before winter, there will certainly be a large amount of hay required in that region before next spring. The C. P. R. has already given a reduction in rates on hay to Calgary and MacLeod that makes the export to those places possible in case of a demand arising; and if the necessity occurs a further reduction is probable. This being the case it would be well for those who have good opportunities for putting up large quantities of hay to improve them as fully as possible, so as to be ready should the demand arise, as there is every probability that it will. Those who have not such good opportunities for putting up hay should at least secure enough for their own requirements, while hay can be cut, in case the Southern demand should make hay scarce and dear at a time when they will need to buy, as was the case in many instances during the winter before last. In case the demand should not arise there would be a certain amount of loss on the extra hay cut, but some loss must be risked if a profit is to be gained in any ordinary business transaction, and it does not appear that the risk of loss in this case is out of proportion to the profit that would accrue if matters turn out as expected.

In regard to barley the BULLETIN has been credibly informed that there is a practically unlimited demand on the Pacific Coast for such barley as the Edmonton district produces, provided the grain is clean, is not of mixed varieties and is of proper color. Also, that such barley will command 5 cents more per bushel than can be paid for the best barley only suitable for feed by reason of its lacking these requirements. That is to say, if a farmer has a good field of barley it will pay him to the extent of 5 cents a bushel to harvest and stack it carefully and keep it separate from inferior grain, and besides he will find a better demand for it at the advanced price than for feed barley.

THE C. P. R.'s NEW DEAL.

If any person was laboring under the impression that the C. P. R. company could not have the earth from the present government and parliament for the asking, a careful perusal of the following act passed at the recent session of parliament will satisfy him to the contrary. At the time the act was introduced and to cover up its iniquity it was given out and generally believed that its provisions would only apply to the section of country between Medicine Hat and Gleichen along the main line, a region that is generally supposed to require irrigation to make it valuable; and that the object of the act was to give the company every opportunity to make an irrigation experiment there on an extensive scale. It will be observed, however, that there is not one word in the act as to where the land is to be selected or for what purpose, and there is no reason to suppose that, even if the company should experiment there, if it finds the results unsatisfactory that it would not take its land in a block or blocks elsewhere:

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Dominion Lands Act, chapter fifty-four of the revised statutes, or in chapter one of the statutes of 1881 intitled an Act respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway, or in any other Act, the Governor in Council may, with the consent of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, grant so much of the subsidy in lands of the said Company as remains ungranted, wholly or in part in tracts of such area as he deems expedient, and including sections bearing even, as well as those bearing uneven numbers; but such grant shall not include any land reserved under the Dominion Lands Act for the Hudson's Bay Company unless and until the said Company have consented thereto, or any lands reserved under the said Act as school lands, unless and until other public lands of equal extent and value, as nearly as may be, have been set apart in lieu thereof.

2. Where any such grant includes lands reserved for the Hudson's Bay Company, after such consent as aforesaid, the Governor in Council may grant to the said Company other lands equal in extent and value, as nearly as may be, in lieu thereof.

3. The grants of lands so made shall include the statutory allowance for roads between sections in the areas so granted, but shall be subject to a reserve of one acre out of every one hundred acres for the establishment of public highways to be defined as hereinafter provided.

4. The Minister of the interior may cause such public highway as he thinks expedient to be surveyed and set off through any tract of land granted under this Act, provided the area taken for this purpose does not exceed the one one-hundredth part of the aggregate area of such tract; and upon the approval by the Minister of any such survey, the area set off thereby shall become and be a public highway, and shall be open to the public for use as such.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN ALBERTA.

The visit of Hon. Wilfred Laurier to Northern Alberta, is being looked forward to with interest, by the settlers throughout the Edmonton district. As is well known, he is one of the most gentlemanly, scholarly, and polished orators in the Dominion. By making a personal inspection he will glean more practical knowledge of this portion of Canada, than if he spent years of study from the numerous reports of it and its capabilities. It is supposed that he will be banqueted at different points in the district.

Mr. P. Ashe of St. Mary's, Southern Alberta, is, and has been here for some days past with a good sized band of horses for sale, which he is trading off at good prices. The dry weather of the past month still continues, although to-day it looks like a change.

Barley cutting is now going on throughout the settlement. The oat, or wheat crop, will not be as heavy as usual, especially on the old ground, that on the new breaking could not be better, hardly.

Travellers on the main trail from the east of here, are getting more profane daily, over the diabolical paths they now have to travel over. How much longer is the present state of affairs going to exist is their cry.

25th July, 1894.

An amendment to the Dominion lands act regarding settlement on school lands before survey provides: "That any person who is proved to the satisfaction of the minister to have bona fide settled and made improvements upon any such section before survey of the township containing such section may be granted a homestead entry for the lands so occupied by him, not in excess of one hundred and sixty acres, if such lands are in other respects of the class open to homestead entry: Provided further, that in every such case the minister shall select from the unclaimed lands in the township an area equal to that for which entry is granted, and shall by notice in the Canada Gazette withdraw it from sale and settlement and set it apart as school lands."

DAIRY COMMISSIONER'S VISIT.

The following information is contained in a poster received from the office of the dairy commissioner, Ottawa, dated May 3rd 1894.

The Dominion Government has made provision for the maintenance of two travelling dairies in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories. They will be under the direction of the Dairy Commissioner for the Dominion. The object of the travelling dairies is to afford those who are engaged in butter-making an opportunity to gain further, exact, practical and helpful information on all parts of the process, from the separating of the cream to the printing and packing of the butter. One expert butter-maker and an assistant, with an outfit of dairy utensils, including a centrifugal cream separator, a churn, a butter-worker, a Babcock milk-tester, etc., etc., will compose each travelling dairy. Two days will be spent at every place which is visited, if the local committee makes the necessary preparations of a place for meetings, supply of milk and a supply of cream. The programme of instructions and illustration will be arranged, as far as practicable, in accordance with the following time cards:

FIRST DAY, 10 TO 12 A. M. 1. Running of centrifugal cream separator, and separating cream from about 10 gallons of milk to be supplied by the local committee; 2. Testing samples of milk; 3. Preparing about two gallons of cream, to be supplied by the local committee; 2 to 5 p. m. 4. Churning of cream supplied by the local committee; 5. Making butter, etc.; 6. Ripening of cream from centrifugal separator; 7. Address on butter-making.

SECOND DAY, 9 TO 10 A. M. 1. Testing samples of milk; 10 to 12 a. m. 2. Churning cream from centrifugal cream separator, and making butter; 2 to 4 p. m. 3. Running the centrifugal cream separator; 4. Discussion on dairy.

REQUIREMENTS. To enable the farmers, their wives and families to get as much benefit as possible from the practical teachings of these travelling dairies, it is necessary that a local committee or individual, in every place to be visited, should arrange beforehand: 1. For a convenient place of meeting; 2. For a supply of about ten gallons of sweet whole milk, to be furnished on the morning of the first day; 3. For a supply of about two gallons of cream (ripened if practicable), also to be furnished on the morning of the first day; 4. For the distribution of bills, (which will be furnished free) announcing the dates and places of meetings, widely and thoroughly in the surrounding country. Farmers are invited to bring samples of whole milk, of skimmed milk and of butter-milk, to be tested; about half a tea-cupful is plenty for each sample.

IMPORTANCE. I urge the farmers and business men generally to avail themselves of the benefits which these travelling dairies are intended to give. The women from the farms are specially invited to be present at the meetings. If you are interested in the welfare and progress of the district where you live, you are hereby invited to see that it makes the necessary preparations for your locality in good time.

I am your obedient servant,

JAS. W. ROBERTSON,
Dairy Commissioner.

Edmonton will be visited on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 14th and 15th. Wetaskiwin on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 19th and 20th.

The Nor Wester points out that the bill to allow the C. P. R. a drawback of duty on the iron required on the new iron bridges of the company, amounting to $200,000, was reported by Messrs Laurier, Cartwright and Mills, and says: This fact presents to us a question of great interest to the Northwest. The C. P. R. is the child—a lusty, hungry one now, it is true—of the Conservative party, and it is natural that Conservatives in Parliament should regard it with affection and even be partial to it. But the Liberals have always professed to stand between that corporation and the people, for the protection of the latter. They cannot do so any longer.

GENERAL NEWS.
About 300 of the 700 in the Thousand Islands, have been sold for $40,000. As these form the choicest half of the total value of $78,000 is not likely to be realized from the sale.

On his return from Ottawa Joseph Martin, M. P., for Winnipeg, told a Tribune reporter that A. W. Ross, M. P., is to be the new lieutenant governor of Manitoba.

Free Press: C. O. Swanson, Dominion immigration agent for the New England States, arrived in the city yesterday with a party of eighteen settlers and seven delegated prospectors. They will proceed west to-morrow.

Commercial: The crop outlook in Manitoba is not materially changed, though the extremely warm weather at the first of the week told on the crops, but it was speedily followed by cooler weather for the balance of the week. There were some light showers during the week, but from other points reports were coming in that the need of rain is beginning to be felt again. One general rain shower would bring the wheat through to harvest and would ensure a better filling out of the heads. The outlook throughout Manitoba generally is for a moderate crop of wheat. The straw is short, but reported to be well headed. The best crops are in the northwestern districts, but wheat is not so much grown in these districts, more attention being given to oats. From all points along the Manitoba Northwestern railway reports received this week are good, the crop being a week or more earlier than last year, and the yield from most points is expected to be considerably heavier than last year.

The balance of Manitoba, including the principal wheat sections, will give only a moderate crop of wheat from present prospects, perhaps equal to last year, while oats promise a poor crop and will need more rain than wheat to put them through to harvest, as a good deal of the oat crop is late. The western portion of the wheat belt, along the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway in Assiniboia territory, is very poor. The condition becomes worse going west after Broadview is passed; Indian Head, Qu'Appelle, Regina and Moose Jaw districts being very poor, and in some sections of these districts the crop is a total failure.

Charlton moved the following amendment: "That the amount of taxation by customs duties in Canada was $12,782,824 in 1878 and was $29,854,003 in 1893, an increase of $17,071,179. That the expenditure of Canada on account of consolidated fund was $23, 503,138 in 1878, and was $36,814,052 in 1893, an increase of $13,310,894; that the expenditure on account of administration of justice, arts, agriculture and statistics, fisheries, quarantine, judiciary, legislation, militia and defence, public works, superannuation, excise Northwest Territories, government mail subsidies and steamship subsidies, civil government, adulteration of food, miscellaneous and Northwest mounted police amounted to $5,256,424, in 1878 and to $10, 384,272 in 1893, an increase of $5,127,848, or 97 per cent; that while the increase of population of Canada from July 1, 1878, to July 1, 1893, did not exceed 20 per cent.
The increase of customs taxation for the same period was 63 per cent, and the increase of expenditure for the same period was 56 per cent.; that this house expresses regret that the increase of customs taxation and of expenditure should have been permitted to reach a ratio three times greater than the increase of population since 1879; that the controllable expenditure should have been permitted to reach a still higher ratio of increase, and that no inconsiderable portion of the annual expenditure has been absorbed by grants made for party or political purposes and not in the public interest, and this house expresses the opinion that the enormous annual expenditure places a burden upon Canada so serious in amount that strict honesty and rigid economy in the future management of the finances of the Dominion should be practised with a view to lessening the public burdens. Defeated by a large majority.
